Dear Mr. John Q. Sample,

Your natural gas contract ends July 1, 2013. Now what?

That's easy – you can stay a valued RiteRate customer (and we certainly hope you do), but to do that you need to visit rite rate.ca and sign a new contract online before noon on Monday, May 27, 2013.

Prices are the lowest they've been in over 10 years.

Our current offer of 16.3 ¢/m³ for a 3-year term or 17.8 ¢/m³ for a 5-year term, means you can lower your rate by almost 50% for the next 3 or 5 years. These rates include a .50 ¢/m³ RENEWAL discount. To take advantage of this offer simply sign a new contract online at rite rate.ca, on or before May 27, 2013, and enter RNWJUL2013 in the Promotion Code on Step 1. Your new rate will automatically begin on July 1, 2013 when your current agreement ends.

The spot price has risen over 130% since last April.

With the colder winter and spring temperatures and the number of natural gas drilling rigs at a multi-year low, natural gas prices have crept up in the last few months. In fact, since April 19, 2012 when the cost of natural gas reached a low of $1.91 US/MMBTU, the spot price has now increased to $4.40 US/MMBTU as of April 18.

"Buy low" is the mantra of successful investors. Now's your chance to fix your rate at or near the market bottom.

Sign up today at rite rate.ca. And please don't hesitate to call us toll-free at 1-877-866-8056 for all your natural gas questions.

I want to thank you for your business and I hope that you will once again choose RiteRate as your fixed-rate natural gas supplier.

Warmest regards,

Tim Nerbas
Founding Partner.

A better way to buy natural gas.
